U.S. Collection

• Newspaper Archive: As the world's largest online newspaper collection, Newspaper Archive features over 96 million records, 120 million newspaper pages and 2.1 billion estimated names, dating dates back from 1609 to the present. Those old newspapers are a reliable source for hundreds of years of history featuring death notices, birth announcements, historical data and secrets to both the past and the future of the world at large.

• Everton Collection: WorldVitalRecords is the exclusive provider of data from Everton’s. Everton’s Genealogical Helper was a venerable trade magazine in the genealogical industry emphasizing content, continuing education, and research resources for both professional genealogists and amateur family history researchers. In addition, the collection includes the Everton Publishers Pedigree Charts and Family Group Sheets. This valuable contains more than 3.5 million names in more than 50,000 pedigree charts and family group sheets. A large part of the collection consists of unpublished manuscripts that are rare or unique to the collection.

• Godfrey library titles: With over 4,000 genealogies, biographies, memoirs, and funeral sermons, the Godfrey Memorial Library has been acquiring and comprising this large collection from many sources for many years.

• Simmons historical publications: More than 750 transcriptions of a variety of records including, but not limited to, censuses, newspapers, land deeds, wills, tax lists, city directories, county marriage records and tombstone inscriptions.

• USA historical digitized books collection: Collection contains thousands of titles. WorldVitalRecords.com is the best and largest source of this massive history and genealogy resource.

• U.S. Census records: This collection contain hundreds of millions of records and valuable information which includes a person's name, gender, year of birth, age, place of birth, occupation, education, marital status, race, full address, residence information (owned, rented, farm etc.), military service information, and citizenship information (language spoken, immigration data, etc.). Household members are listed with the person as well. Our U.S. census collection includes records for the following years: 1840 (indexed daily), 1930, 1920, 1910, 1900, 1880, 1870, 1860, 1850 and 1840.

• Specific records by state: Our extensive collection also features specific state collections, including birth, marriage, divorce and death records. Among our popular state collections you can find the California birth index 1905-1995 (24.5 million records), the California death index 1940-1997 (9.4 million records), Texas marriages and divorces (10.5 million records) and many other state collections.

• Social Security Death Index: This popular database contains over 69 million names of individuals whose deaths were reported to the Social Security Administration.

• Military collection: Our huge Military records collection consists of almost 300 million records, including: The U.S. World War II army enlistment (8.8 million records), Service records of Confederate Soldiers (11.7 million records), Revolutionary War Pension Records (11.7 million records) and the Air force Register Extracts (1.3 million records).

• Passenger and immigration lists 1500-1900: This database contains more than 5.1 million records. Anyone with ancestors who entered the United States between 1500 and 1900 may find Passenger and Immigration Lists (P&I), 1500-1900 to be a useful database.
• Records of Germans immigrating to the U.S.: With more than 4 million records, this valuable collection contains records of passengers who were U.S. citizens or non-U.S. citizens planning to continue their travels, returning to the U.S., or staying in the U.S.

• Records of Italians Immigrating to the U.S.: This collection consists of records of 845,368 passengers who arrived at the United States between 1855 through 1900. About 99 percent identified their country of origin or nationality as Italy or one of the Italian regions.

• Records of Russians Immigrating to the U.S.: This collection consists of records of 527,364 passengers who arrived at the United States between 1834 through 1897 and identified their country of origin or nationality as Armenia, Finland, Galicia, Lithuania, Poland, Russia, Russian Poles, or Ukraine.

• Passengers arriving in New York from Ireland: This collection identifies 604,566 persons who arrived in the Port of New York, 1846-1851, and the ships on which they arrived.

• Ellis Island passenger arrival records 1892-1924: The Ellis Island Passenger Arrival Records contains details for more than 24 million passengers and crew who arrived through the Port of New York at Ellis Island between January 1, 1892 and December 31, 1924

• Historical maps: Historical maps are a great resource if you want to learn more about a particular place at a specific time. In addition, some maps include names of people who owned the land. This collection contains more than 10 million names.

• Dead Fred Genealogy Photo Archive Index: This online digital archive contains over 66,000 records and over 97,000 ancestral images taken prior to 1965.

• Find a grave: With millions of names and more than 48.5 million records, Find A Grave is an invaluable tool for genealogists and history buffs. Gravestones are rich with content, including dates and photos.

U.K. Collection

• U.K. Births 1761-2006: An extensive collection of United Kingdom birth records between 1837 and 2006. The collection includes more than 133 million records.

• U.K. Marriages 1796-2005: An extensive collection of United Kingdom marriage records containing more than 95 million records.

• U.K. Deaths 1796-2006: An extensive collection of United Kingdom death records containing more than 87 million records.

• England and Wales births, GRO indexes 1911-1954: This collection is an index of civil birth registrations for England and Wales containing more than 29 million records.

• England and Wales deaths GRO indexes 1969-2007: This collection is an index of death registrations for England and Wales containing more than 22 million records.

• U.K. census records: This collection contains tens of millions of records and valuable information from England and Wales, the census recorded name, gender, age at last birthday, relationship to the head of the family, marital status, occupation, place of birth and place of residence. Our U.K. census collection includes records for the years: 1901, 1891, 1881, 1871, 1861, 1851, and 1841.
World Collection

- MyHeritage family trees: This collection of family trees submitted to MyHeritage.com by users. Each family tree includes information about the people and relationships in this family, including first and last names, events such as births, marriages, deaths and burials and any other life events. This collection currently includes 794,798,565 records and keeps growing daily.

- MyHeritage photos & docs: This collection includes public photos, videos and documents posted by MyHeritage members on their family sites. This collection includes Millions of historical photos and more than 45 million records.

- Canada historical digitized books collection: This collection contains thousands of titles of historical books from Canada.

- Winnipeg free press: the largest historical newspaper database online contains tens of millions of newspaper pages from 1759 to present and more than 3.6 million records.

- 1871 Ontario, Canada: This census database contains more than 400,000 records of personal information such as name, age, country or province of birth, occupation, ethnic origin, and religious denomination.

- Dundurn press: This census database contains more than 400,000 records of personal information such as name, age, country or province of birth, occupation, ethnic origin and religious denomination.

- Enecian: This database of Irish information contains well over 100,000 names. This collection includes the valuable 1851 Dublin census and Index of Irish Wills 1484-1858.

- British & Irish Passenger lists 1890: The British & Irish Passenger Lists 1890 from British Origins contains abstracts of all passenger lists for sailings in 1890 from British & Irish ports with US and Canadian destinations.

- Digitized books Australian archive collection: This collection contains thousands of titles of historical books from Australia.

- Australian Newspaper index: With more than 1.7 million names, the Australian Newspaper index is a great research aid and a valuable source of information.